DE LACY DEFEATED.

Superior Court Denies His Injunction Against Al Adams.

Brought to Test the Ives Pool Law Constitutionality.

The Bookmaker Balked in His Efforts to Close Race Tracks.

The Superior Court, General Term, handed down its decision today in the fight between Peter De Lacy and the race track proprietors and the result is De Lacy's defeat.

On its face the proceeding was simply an action by Peter De Lacy, owner of the West Twenty-ninth street, to enjoin Albert J. Adams, his tenant, from conducting a pool room there.

Adams claimed he was doing a legitimate business under the Ives act, and De Lacy's contention was that that law was unconstitutional.

Judge McGowan, the Superior Court, granted a temporary injunction to the General Term, and the case was set for the General Term.

The General Term, Judge Freeman writing, the opinion, has dissolved the temporary injunction. It is held that the case is not one in which a Court of Equity will interfere.

The court says: "A full determination of the question involves the constitutionality of Chapter 42, of the Laws of 1887, which provides that the code provisions shall not apply to the grounds of incorporated racing associations in each year, and which, according to defendant's claim, justifies his business."

De Lacy's contention was that the Ives act is unconstitutional, and that the court should grant him a writ of habeas corpus.

It is held that De Lacy's complaint is insufficient, and the affidavits cannot strengthen it.

Independently of that, the record as a whole does not justify the court in granting him a writ of habeas corpus.

All the facts which the court should be put in possession of, and a little reading between the lines suggests a doubt whether the controversy between the parties is of such a character that a Court of Equity should take cognizance of it.

To be entitled to any relief, the plaintiff must satisfy the court that the controversy is a real one, and that he comes into court with clean hands.

All matters can be settled at the trial.

EDWIN BOOTH'S CONDITION.
No Change Reported by the Stricken Actor's Physician.

There was no apparent change in the condition of Edwin Booth this morning.

At the Players' Club it was said that he was still quite drowsy, which is regarded as an unfavorable symptom.

Dr. St. Clair Smith remained with the stricken actor during the night and was relieved this morning by Dr. Fremont Smith.

Dr. St. Clair Smith called at 10 o'clock and remained an hour. When he left he said that, notwithstanding the alarming reports in the morning paper, Mr. Booth was no worse than he has been in the past three days.

While there has been no noticeable improvement in his condition, he said there had been no perceptible sinking spell.

Some of the officers of the Players' Club think Mr. Booth's physician is keeping his true condition from them.

One of them said this morning that he thought Mr. Booth was a little weaker.

Mr. Fossman, Mr. Booth's daughter, called earlier than usual this morning, and remained until 11 o'clock.

The number of callers this morning who inquired after Mr. Booth's condition was larger than usual.

RELAY BICYCLE RIDE.
Bearers of the Message from Boston to Chicago Ahead of Time.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 1.—The relay message which is being carried from Boston to Chicago by wheelmen, left this city on its way to Newark early this morning.

The message arrived at Milford at 4:35 A. M., about two hours and six minutes ahead of time. Strickland and Knapp, of Bridgeport, missed the message at Milford, and Tabb and Brewster continued on to Bridgeport, arriving here at 5:00 A. M. The schedule time was 7:05 A. M.

Tabb gained two minutes between Milford and Bridgeport, and upon his arrival here he had riding nearly twenty-five miles he was badly used up. Elliott and Moore took the message to Newark.

A similar failure to change relays was made at New Haven, owing to the great delay that had been made in time.

FINED $10 EACH FOR FIGHTING.
John Donohue, Frank Carney, John O'Connor, Richard Wiley and Joseph Hyman were arraigned in the Tombs Police Court this morning, and Judge Ryan fined them $10 each for disturbing the peace in the lodging-house at 104 East 100th.

$1,000 WEEKLY.
Furniture, carpets and everything for housekeeping. O. M. Baggott, Grand St., 104 East 100th.

FIRST OF MAY IN EUROPE.
Labor Meetings Prevented in the Disturbed District of Belgium.

Strike in Disfavor with English Dock Laborers—Coffee Failure.

BRUSSELS, May 1.—May Day here has so far been attended with no disorder. The laborers will hold a demonstration in honor of the day after their working hours are over. There will then be a procession, and speeches will be delivered from six platforms to the assembled crowd.

Numerous meetings will be held in the provinces, but the burgomasters are prohibiting the holding of meetings in the disturbed districts of Liege, Charleroi and Borinage.

REKLIN, May 1.—The weather is unfavorable to open air celebration, rain being indicated, and so far the Socialists and others who proposed to celebrate May Day as the holiday of labor have not made any appearance.

FAHRS, May 1.—The celebration of May Day by the Socialists and others is proceeding both in this city and in the provinces. Perfect order is being maintained everywhere.

At Marseilles a number of workmen's delegates marched to the Marie heated by a band playing the "Marseillaise," and sent word to the Mayor that they would like to see him.

The Mayor went out on a balcony and delivered a short address to the delegates, advising them to create no disturbance, but to observe the day in an orderly manner.

The delegates responded that they intended that the demonstration should be a peaceable one, and after repeated cheers and cries of "Vive la Republique" the crowd dispersed.

VIENNA, May 1.—May Day is being observed in this city in a quiet and orderly manner. The authorities recently issued an order forbidding the holding of processions, and the workmen are celebrating the day by the holding of meetings, at which the equalization of the franchise and an eight-hour day are demanded. No trouble is apprehended.

Despatches from Budapest and Prague state that the workmen of those cities are generally celebrating May Day. No disorders have been reported.

BIG COFFEE OPERATOR FAILS.
Thirty Firms Implicated in the Collapse of Kattenbach, of Paris.

LONDON, May 1.—The Financial News today announces that the gigantic coffee exchange, engineered by M. Kattenbach, of Paris, has collapsed, implicating thirty firms in the city, and a number of houses in Antwerp, Rotterdam and Hamburg.

The paper adds that for twelve months M. Kattenbach has been carrying on a million bags of coffee. One-fourth of this was actual coffee, while the remainder was in futures and options.

Recently M. Kattenbach has been unable to furnish his agents in New York with margins. The coffee had by the agents was forced on the market, causing a heavy fall in prices there.

At Havre there was also a decline amounting to 100 francs. Since the prices have recovered somewhat under the efforts made to supply values, in order to save the firms involved.

The cable announcing the collapse of M. Kattenbach, the Paris coffee speculator, was received at the New York coffee exchange this morning, but it caused scarcely a ripple of interest among local operators.

It was not until about 10 o'clock that the "past" was broken on the floor, and the effect has been generally discounted. As prices have been sagging for several days, it was not surprising that the market would be closed out.

Several coffee houses are affected. Of course, the coffee firms in Hamburg, Antwerp, Havre and Rotterdam, who were interested in the deal with Kattenbach, have gone down with him, though it is generally believed here that Kattenbach's interest was greatly exaggerated by reports from the other side.

At present, however, the market is quiet, and the foreign markets are weak and declining.

BIG SUGAR FAILURE.
Suspension of a Large Firm Reported in Liverpool.

LIVERPOOL, May 1.—The failure of a large firm is reported.

The firm is stated to have been principally in sugar.

10,000 MILL HANDS STRIKE.
Great Labor Struggle Inaugurated To-Day at Dundee.

LONDON, May 1.—A great labor struggle began today at Dundee. The mill owners at that place recently notified the operatives that a reduction would be made in their wages.

The mill hands refused to accept the terms of the masters and today 10,000 operatives went on strike.

The strikers have been compelled to close in consequence.

DOCK LABORERS DISUNITED.
The Men Return to Work After a Few Hours' Strike in London.

LONDON, May 1.—The movement for a strike of dockers in London does not appear to make progress, probably in view of the thorough preparation made by the Thames Conservancy of the night to supply free labor.

Early this morning a meeting of the dockers was held, at which it was resolved that the strike should be abandoned.

The strikers, however, thought better of the matter and resumed their work.

The threat of a general strike against the shipping department and in support of the dockers' strike, has been abandoned.

MICHAEL SLATTERY MISSING.
His Wife Receives a Postal-Card Saying that He Is Dead.

A Year Ago She Had Him Arrested for Abandonment.

Mrs. Michael Slattery, of 51 Bayard street, is exceedingly anxious to ascertain the whereabouts of her husband, who is a tailor, fifty-nine years old.

He disappeared from home on April 21, and nothing more was heard of him until the afternoon of April 25, when she received the following anonymous communication written on the back of a postal card:

Dear Madam: As your husband died on April 21, day if you do not call this afternoon he will be buried this afternoon (Monday).

The postal card was carefully examined, but did not show that any one by that name had died.

Mrs. Slattery is sorely puzzled over the communication. It may be the work of some joker, who has put her husband up to playing a trick on the unfortunate woman.

On the other hand, some think that it looks as if Slattery really thought that he was going to die, and that he wrote the postal before leaving for some hospital.

Michael Slattery, an old tailor in McCrann's employ, said that he saw Slattery on the morning of April 21, at the latter's home, 51 Bayard street, where he was working. He said that he saw Slattery on the morning of April 21, at the latter's home, 51 Bayard street, where he was working.

NAMED BY GILROY.
